

Western Isles Community Energy Conference

Thursday 8th March 2018 | Leverburgh Hall, South Harris

9:30-10am Registration; Tea/Coffee

10-10:15am Community Energy: The Current Situation (Kathleen MacDonald, Community Energy Scotland)

10:15-10:30am Supplying Local Loads (Ivan Brown, Urras Sgìre Oighreachd Bharabhais)

10:30-11:10am Outer Hebrides Local Energy Hub (Students from the University of Flensburg, Germany)

11:10-11:30am Break; Tea/Coffee

11:30-11:45am Electric Vehicles – Energy in Motion (Rona Mackay, Community Energy Scotland)

11:45-12:30pm Smart Islands? - Workshop (Mark Hull, Community Energy Scotland)

12:30-1:45pm Lunch and CES AGM (1-1:30pm)

1:45-2pm Re-energising Community Buildings (Kenny Mackay, Kinloch Historical Society)

2-2:15pm Hydrogen Ferries (Calum Macdonald, Point and Sandwick Power)

2:15-3pm Local Smart Systems - Workshop (Gillian Wilson, Community Energy Scotland)

3-3:15pm Wind for Small Island Grids in Indonesia (Maisarah Binti Ab Kadir, University of Flensburg)

3:15-3:30pm Question and Answer Session (Kirsten Macdonald)

3:30-3:45pm Sum up and Close (Nicholas Gubbins)

Thanks to our main sponsor, Galson Energy Ltd, and our secondary sponsor, Orenda Energy Solutions. The conference is also supported by Comhairle nan Eilean Siar through the Outer Hebrides Community Energy Support Service, and by LEADER Innse Gall and Western Isles Development Trust through the Outer Hebrides Facility Based Support Programme.

